

barbara ann kett

Jazz-Blues-Soul Singer

...with all her heart and soul

Barbara Ann Kett, a Munich native, started singing as a toddler and has used her talent in different choirs, bands, solo projects and studio work. Never one to stop, she improved her techniques with singing lessons taught by Charles B. Logan, Marina Trost and Lisa Wahlandt. She even attended the FMZ in Munich, where she studied Jazz and graduated with a Jazz Diploma.

With assorted Ensembles as well as Piano and Guitar Duos, Barbara has gained singing experience in almost every genre.

It does not matter if you like to listen to soft Jazz Standards or wistful Ballades, groovy Swing Tunes, emotional Bossa Nova and Latin Melodies, lyrical Soul or poignant Blues Songs, grandiose Musical Pieces, funky and up tempo Harmonies ... the range of Barbara Ann Kett is hardly limited. A very energetic singer, she also likes to perform many rock and pop classics.

And when she is on stage, she lets herself go. The audience will be mesmerized by her charisma and flair. She does not only sing songs, she tells stories with them. Let Barbara take you away to a different world and indulge yourself for a couple of hours.

According to the motto ...

*“With all one's heart
and with all one's soul”*
